Sometimes we think that we can't really make a difference in the world because we are just one person, but it's not true. For example, one amazing person is Gerson Andrés Flórez Pérez. As a child of ten, he worked for peace in his country, Colombia.

He did a lot to help children hurt by exploding landmines. He was nominated for the Nobel Peace Prize when he was just sixteen years old. He has even met famous people like Rigoberta Menchú and the Queen of Jordan.

Another amazing person is Chi Nguyen. As a children's rights activist, she has held concerts and even made candy to sell to raise money for street children in Vietnam. She has provided food, clothing, medicine, and schoolbooks to help over 100 orphans.

96. Can individuals really make a difference in the world?

97. Where is Gerson Andrés Flórez Pérez from?

98. What did he do when he was ten years old?

99. What happened when he was sixteen?

100. Who is Chi Nguyen?

101. How has she raised money for street children in Vietnam?

102. What did she buy with the money she raised?

103. How many orphans has she helped?

Hi, I'm Robert. I have to tell you I'm feeling nervous, you know, because my life has changed a lot since July. I have lived here for only a few weeks, and I don't know anyone. Before I came here, I always lived in Hilltown, where I was born. I went to school there, and played with all my friends every day. Everyone in my neighborhood knew me. Now, here I am, in a new city and a new school. No one knows me. I've played soccer since I was six years old, and I'm pretty good. But no one knows. I've practiced karate for three years, but no one knows. I used to write for the school newspaper, but no one knows. I feel like I'll always be alone. I could really, really use a new good friend right now.

- 109. How is Robert feeling?

- 110. Why does he feel that way?

- 111. How long has Robert lived here?

- 112. Where did he use to live?

- 113. How long has he played soccer?

114. How long has he practiced karate?

115. Does Robert write for the school newspaper now?

116. What should Robert do to feel better?
